

OPSRRA Governance Survey Summary

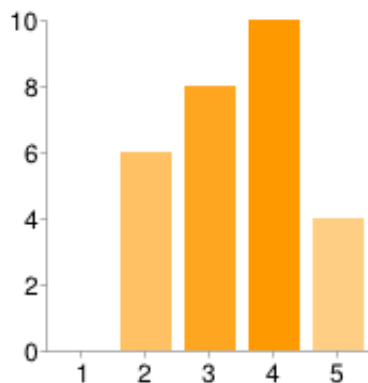

28 responses

Where do you reside?

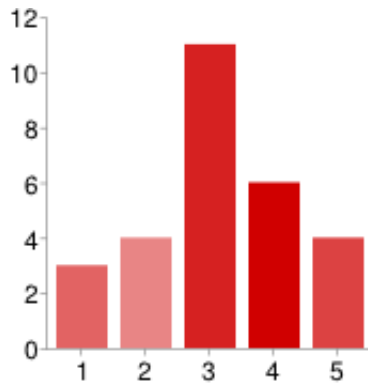

Otter Point	23	82%
Shirley	5	18%
Jordon River	0	0%
Elsewhere in JDFEA	0	0%
Other	0	0%

Overall, how well does governance in the JDFEA meet your PERSONAL needs (e.g. affordable taxes, access to elected representatives, bylaw enforcement, etc.)?

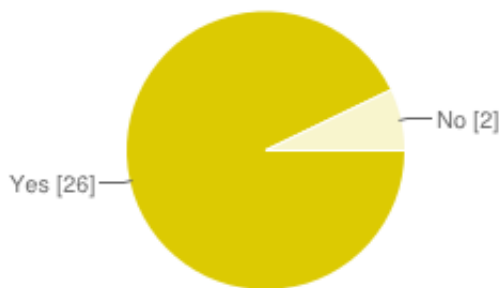

1	0	0%
2	6	21%
3	8	29%
4	10	36%
5	4	14%

Overall, how well does the present governance of the JDFEA meet the COMMUNITY'S needs (e.g. fire protection, land use planning, parks & trails, economic development, groundwater protection, rural life style)?

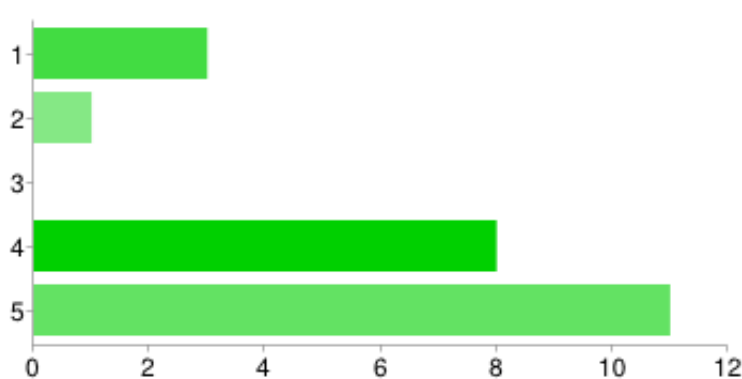

1	3	11%
2	4	14%
3	11	39%
4	6	21%
5	4	14%

Do you feel there is a need to have a study to look at future governance options in the JDFEA?

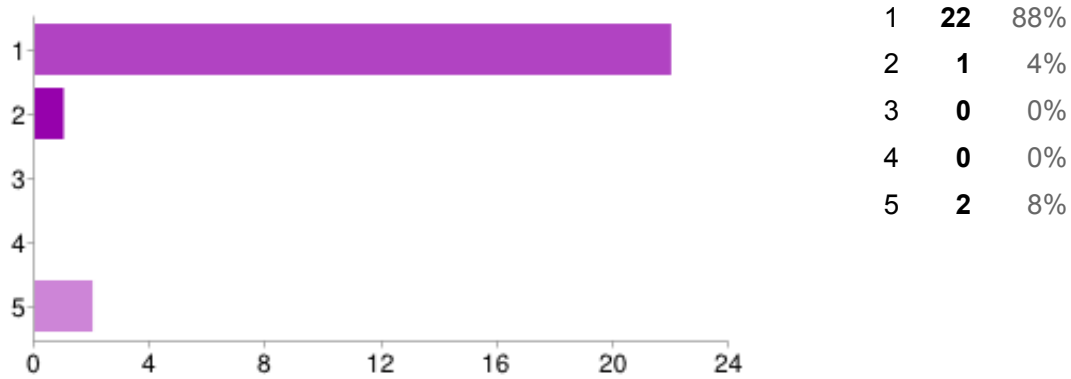

Yes	26	93%
No	2	7%

Create a separate Electoral Area for Otter Point, Shirley, Jordon River and Port Renfrew and the Rural Resource Lands [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

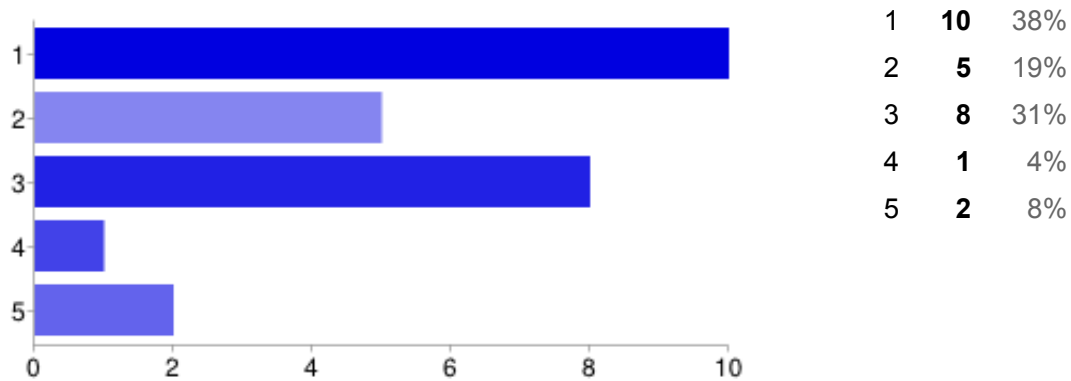

1	3	13%
2	1	4%
3	0	0%
4	8	35%
5	11	48%

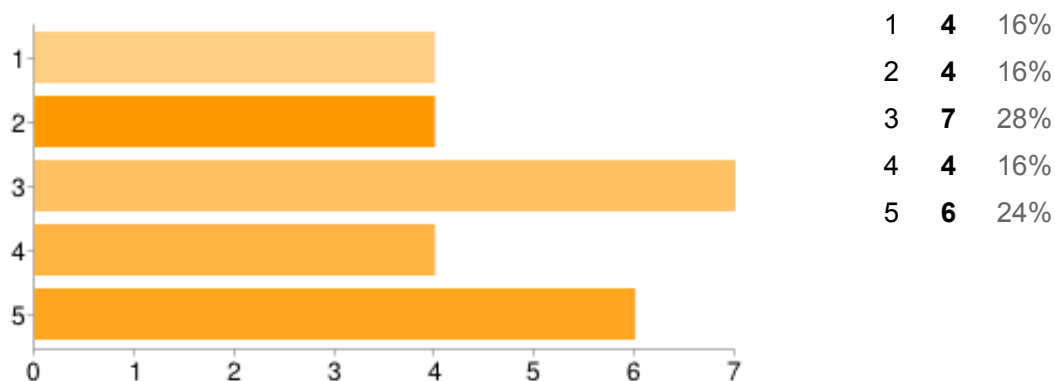

Amalgamate with Sooke, Colwood, Langford and Metchosin. [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

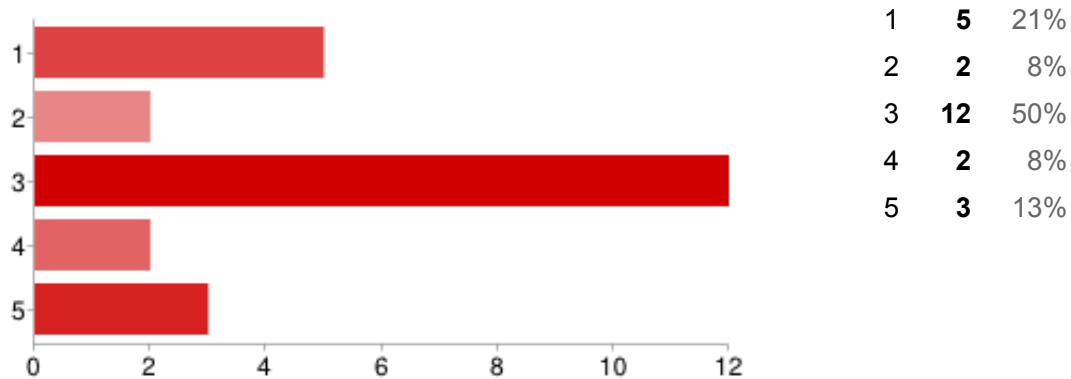

Incorporate all the communities west of Sooke into a new municipality. [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

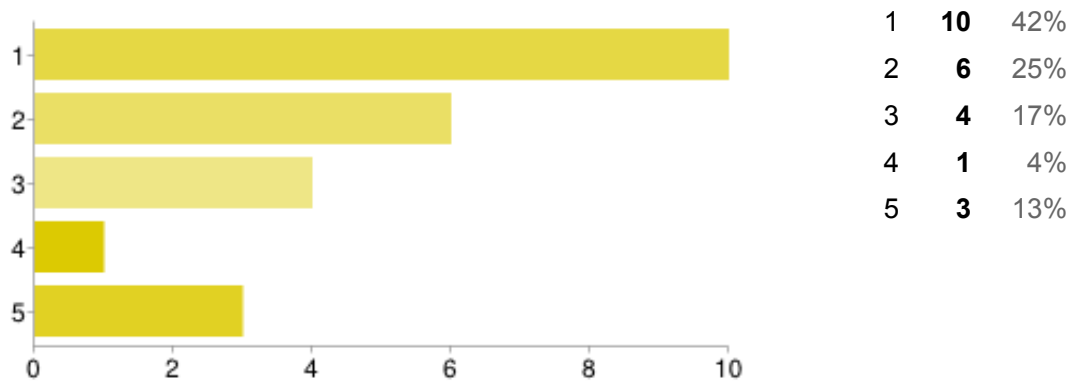

Have an elected Community Council with one member from each community to advise the JDFEA Regional Director. [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

Expand the responsibilities of the present JDFEA committees and commissions
[Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

Create a department of the CRD that has responsibility for the JDFEA. [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

Create a new governance model for electoral areas that supports their desire to remain rural and allows for more participation in local decision making. [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

Amalgamate with the District of Sooke [Please complete the following if you answered YES to the above question.]

